WELCOME TO PEREGRINE

From our humble first steps in the foothills of Nepal, we've expanded to over 80 countries across all seven continents. Over 40 years of operating, one thing has stayed constant – our desire for authentic adventure.

Our passionate guides and leaders will give you the story behind the well-known highlights, then help you find the smaller moments that make your journey truly unforgettable.

With our smaller group sizes you'll be able to slip between alleys and see local secrets the big groups just can't reach, and eat and stay in more intimate and authentic locations.

We're a company built by travellers, for travellers, and it shows in every step.

Take your next one with us.

SMALL GROUP JOURNEYS

At Peregrine, we believe small groups are the key to unlocking unforgettable adventures.

Travelling in small groups of 12 or fewer (on land-based tours) means we can keep experiences spontaneous and authentic and discover local secrets. It's the ideal number to duck between market stalls or sit down for a leisurely meal at a local family restaurant.

WORLD-CLASS LEADERS With an intimate group, you'll really get to know your leader. Share stories and meals, getting the chance to ask more questions and go deeper than the guidebook.

HAND-PICKED ACCOMMODATION We have the flexibility to stay in a wider range of lodgings, and we carefully select all our accommodation for a reason. Whether it's the spectacular view, central location, historical relevance or all the above.

EFFORTLESS TRAVEL We adapt our transport for each destination, without compromising on comfort. When we're not travelling by high-speed train in Italy, or by horse and cart in Transylvania, we use private vehicles to reduce travel time.

CURATED EXPERIENCES We'll start with the highlights, but when the big tour groups hop back on their coach our local guides will help you find a more unique, personal experience.

PEREGRINE MOMENTS

After 40 years travelling the globe, we've learnt it's the little things that make a trip memorable. Peregrine Moments lead you off the well-worn tourist trails and take you a little deeper into the culture. Like riding on a horse and cart through the Transylvanian countryside, or joining a family to taste wine in the hills of Tuscany.

LOCAL KNOWLEDGE

Over 20 years ago, we became the first tour company of our kind to exclusively employ local leaders in the destinations we visit. Because who better to guide you through the backstreets than someone who lives there?

Our trips feature plenty of guidebook highlights, but you won't stop there. Our leaders will help you to find experiences that are intimate, authentic and memorable, away from the well-worn path.

Our small group size guarantees you more one-on-one time with your leader and the opportunity to develop a meaningful relationship with them and the destination you're exploring.

Let our local leaders show you their world.

“

Serena went out of her way to add personal touches every day! We loved every minute of it. She made the tour!

– Nicolai, Walking in Italy: The Italian Lakes

HAND-PICKED ACCOMMODATION

Travelling in small groups means we aren't restricted to staying in larger chain hotels. Our destination experts can seek out accommodation that better reflects the style of the region.

You'll spend less time waiting in queues for check-in and more time soaking up your surrounds. We don't subscribe to the idea that adventure means forgoing comfort, and the accommodation we use is hand-picked for its quality, amenities and location. All of our standard trips also include a special feature stay – lodgings selected for their ability to enrich your experience. What that means will change depending on the destination. From a former embassy building in Greece to a country hotel on a working horse farm in Iceland, your stay will be memorable for all the right reasons.

Castello di Spaltenna Tuscan Resort & Spa, Chianti, Italy

This stunning property is a converted medieval monastery surrounded by grapevine covered hills. A luxurious Tuscan experience, the resort boasts multiple pools, a full spa service, Michelin-starred restaurants and a cellar featuring exclusive wines from the neighbouring vineyards.

FEATURE STAY

RESPONSIBLE TRAVEL

In 2018, we made our commitment to doing good official when we became part of the world's largest certified travel B Corp. Being a B Corp means we no longer merely strive to make a positive difference in the world, we are legally bound to it. Certified B Corps are companies that look after their staff, maintain a clean supply chain and take corporate social responsibility seriously. That means when you choose Peregrine, you can rest assured you're travelling to improve the planet.

Here are just some of the ways we do that:

CARBON POSITIVE ACTION

Any emissions created by the transport or accommodation used in our trips are offset through the purchase of carbon credits, as part of our decade-long commitment to being a carbon neutral business.

ANIMAL WELFARE

We're industry leaders when it comes to animal welfare – in 2014 we were the first global tour operator to end elephant rides on our tours.

ENDING MODERN SLAVERY

In 2016 we removed orphanage visits from our itineraries, and in 2019 we campaigned for laws that recognised orphanage tourism as a form of modern slavery.

COMMUNITY-BASED TOURISM

Responsible, community-based tourism is good for travellers and locals alike. That's why we've worked with organisations like ActionAid in Myanmar to develop projects that empower communities.

Since 2002, The Intrepid Foundation has been offering travellers a tangible, transparent way to give back to the communities we visit. It's simple: you donate, we double your contribution, and then we give 100% of that money to a community-based project. Thanks to you, we've donated over AU $7 million to more than 130 local organisations around the world, helping to improve the livelihoods of vulnerable individuals and communities through sustainable travel experiences.

Find out how you can help at theintrepidfoundation.org

ITALY WALKING TRIPS

What makes a Peregrine Italy walking trip so special? It's not just the superb scenery and companionship of your small group. It's more than the fresh coastal or countryside air and all the wonderful food and wine you'll try along the way – it's our leaders too. Born and raised in the regions we visit, our leaders are devoted locals who know their regions like the back of their hand. It's their local insight and connections with communities that make this such a special and authentic experience.

FITNESS

You'll need to have a reasonable level of fitness. Expect to walk 3-7 km (3-6 hours) on walking days on the trail itself, with further walks to explore the local area. See the trip pages for specific information.

TERRAIN

Peregrine walking trips in Italy can be similar to walking in the foothills of the Himalayas, minus the altitude and plus a little heat. The Cinque Terre and Amalfi Coast, in particular, have a lot of steps.

EQUIPMENT

Comfortable, broken-in hiking shoes, a hat and sunscreen are essential. You'll need light clothes, such as airy long-sleeved shirts to protect you from the sun, and a thin, waterproof jacket for the cooler mornings and evenings. A refillable water bottle is a must. Walking poles aren't essential, but may come in handy if you've got experience using them.

FOOD & DRINK

Make sure to pack an appetite as there will be plenty of opportunities to eat delicious fare. Enjoy picnics of local produce at scenic spots or stop for snacks along the path. Your local leader knows all the best places to stop for an authentic panino or gelato.

WEATHER & SEASONS

The heat – and crowds – along the coast during July and August can be stifling, so we don't run trips in the height of summer. Spring blooms and autumn harvests make for fantastic photo ops. The first and last trips of the season will be quietest, crowd-wise.

If you'd like to combine your walking trips, please contact us for information on connecting transfers.

SPAIN, PORTUGAL & MOROCCO

When the sun sets on a sleepy Seville afternoon, a flamenco performance can be heard and a voice swoops in slowly with a mournful croon. The life-affirming melody that echoes around the Iberian Peninsula goes beyond city and country and dates back centuries. To the west, in Portugal, it comes through in the fado, with tales of love and loss. To the north, in Spain, it whispers in the winds that wind through the Picos de Europa, and to the south, in Morocco, it is found in traditional Gnaoua music. It's the voice of the everyday folk – the folk you'll encounter on a Peregrine trip. We'll take you away from the well-worn tourist routes to the troubadours hiding in the corners and behind the doors – the ones who give their countries the rhythm and verve they are famous for.

A Week on the Camino (self-guided)

8 Days

This trip offers the freedom and independence of a self-guided journey without having to organise the finer details. Receive a welcome pack with essential information including a detailed travel book with an updated itinerary, route notes, maps and your Pilgrim Passport. Your luggage is transferred while you walk, so all you need is your day pack.

SELF-GUIDED WALKING TOUR

This is a challenging walking trip. You'll need to be in good health as walks will be 4-7 hours (19-28 km) per day, with some inclines and declines and on varied terrain, from well-defined paths to rocky trails. See the Peregrine website for more details.

Day 1 Sarria A Peregrine representative will meet you at Santiago de Compostela airport and transfer you to the hotel in Sarria.

Day 2 Sarria – Portomarín Guided by yellow arrows and scallop-shell symbols, walk through villages and hamlets to reach the Mino River. The section from Peruscallo to Brea is one of the most beautiful of the walk. Cross into Portomarín, your base for the night (23 km).

Day 3 Portomarín – Lestedo The track takes you uphill to the mountains of Legonde. Stop at a pilgrim rest area in the village of Gonzar before reaching Lestedo, and settle into tonight's feature stay property (21 km).

Day 4 Lestedo – Melide Palas de Rei is one of the most important towns on the pilgrim's route. Pass through here on the way to the borders of the Lugo and A Coruna provinces. Your final destination is Melide, one of the largest towns on the trail (19 km).

Day 5 Melide – Arzua Today ends in Arzua, where the Camino Frances (French Way) meets the Camino del Norte (North Way). See the 14th-century Capilla de la Magdalena and 20th-century Iglesia de Santiago and don't leave without trying the area's famous cheese (15 km).

Day 6 Arzua – Rua Walk from Arzua to Rua, through forests of oak and eucalyptus and by streams and small villages. Visit the Chapel of Santa Irene along the way (19 km).

Day 7 Rua – Santiago de Compostela The end is in sight. At Monte do Gozo, ancient pilgrims would get their first view of the towers of the Cathedral of Santiago. This is a great spot to sit back and reflect before leaving rural landscapes behind, making your way through the city and completing your walk (19 km).

Day 8 Santiago de Compostela Your Camino walking adventure concludes after breakfast.

FEATURE STAY

Casa Rectoral de Lestedo, Lestedo (Day 3)
Enjoy a well-earned feast in Lestedo, staying in a gorgeous old building of original stonework with a modern touch.
